Cry No More by Linda Howard Goodreads

Cry No More was published more than ten years ago, but that hasn't diminished the appeal at all! It brought out a range of emotions in me. It was a heartbreaking tale, any mother would probably gasp after the first chapter, but it was also an exciting, action packed read! Let's not forget the romance, because as usual, it's my favorite part!

Cry No More A Novel Amazon.ca Linda Howard Books

Cry No More is an emotionally draining book with a dark side. However, it is also an exciting romance that is heart meltingly tender and passionate. The overall style of the book reminded me a lot of All the Queen's Men, an earlier Linda Howard novel, in which the characters (and indeed the reader!) were equally tormented. In Cry No More we have Milla Edge, a woman whose baby was brutally

Cry No More A Novel Howard Linda Kindle edition by

Cry No More doesn't offer a perfect HEA, but it does end on a positive journey of healing, sacrifice, and love. This was my first Linda Howard novel, and I really didn't know what to expect. The writing felt a little impersonal sometimes the way it's written in third person; and the over-telling of every detail made this a really slow story for me. I kept thinking each detail was important to
