Cult Fiction Popular Reading and Pulp Theory by Clive Bloom

The author makes such a strong call for pulp fiction to be cult fiction that the book might have been better titled 'pulp fiction'. Whilst there is a semi-chronological study between chapters of the rise of the printing press as a conduit for the popularity of cult fiction, each chapter often feels dumped in its own right, and some of the connections are sparse at best.

CULT FICTION Popular Reading and Pulp Theory by Clive

Cult Fiction was the first serious study of popular fiction of this type, and was intended to be a scholarly and academic study. Lots of books are on the shelves now which have copied what Bloom started. But he is still the best. I would recommend this book for students of popular fiction and academics alike.
