The Savage City by T J English Review BookPage

But in The Savage City, his gripping account of the decade between 1963 and 1973, the ten-year period when New York City began its now-legendary descent into mayhem, T.J. English sounds a cautionary note. He argues that the city's criminal justice system is still based on assumptions about race and class, and fear is still its major tool of coercion. The fault lines remain
